

Kid Friendly Fundraising Ideas

Try to cross off 3 from each column!

|   |   |
|---|---|
| AUCTIONS/RAFFLES: Create unique pieces of art or collect unused items to auction/raffle off. Have friends and family buy tickets to your raffle or bid in your auction. The winner will get to keep the prize and you'll have brought more awareness to your fundraising efforts! | SHOVEL FOR YOUR CAUSE: Winter is the perfect time to look for a shoveling gig! Ask your neighbors and family friends if they would be willing to donate to your Bowl for Kids' Sake efforts if you were to shovel the snow from their sidewalk or driveway. |
| BAKE SALE: Ask a parent or mentor to help you bake delicious treats for a bake sale! These can be sold in your neighborhood, at a garage sale, or even a local business.  | HOT CHOCOLATE STAND: Everyone loves a delicious cup of hot chocolate in the winter! Check to see if you can set up a stand at your winter's farmer's market to raise awareness.   |
| CANNING: Call your local grocery store and ask if you are able to can in front of their business for a few hours. Collect donations in a bucket and talk to customers about your cause!   | START A CHANGE JAR: Create a jar to collect spare change. Ask others to make a contribution.  |
| WRITE-A-THON: Write a letter to your family members, teachers, doctor, and dentist! Tell them about your hard work towards the cause and ask for a donation. If you're an artist, include a personalized drawing.   | SOCIAL MEDIA: Ask your parents for permission to share information about your Bowl for Kids' Sake efforts online. It's quick, easy, and effective!  |
| MOVIE NIGHT: See if your friends and family would help you host a movie night. Charge a small entry fee and sell popcorn for an extra dollar! Yum!  | GAME TOURNAMENT: Do you know how to play War or Go Fish? If so, gather 10 of your friends and charge a $2 entry fee and have a card tournament! Split with the winner, and put half towards your Bowl for Kids' Sake Team!                                 |
| COLLECT CANS: Did you know that you can receive money for aluminum cans? Visit your neighbors and tell them you are collecting cans to support your cause. Once you have enough, take them to the local recycling center in exchange for cash!                                    | TELETHON: Let's not forget about the simplicity of a phone call! Call your family members and friends and talk to them about your fundraising efforts. People want to hear about the great things you're doing!   |